

Hillier have joined forces with Shoot to help Chelsea visitors recreate inspiring plant displays from the Hillier exhibit in their own gardens.

For the first time the full list of plants showcased by Hillier Nurseries at the Chelsea Flower Show 2011 is being made available exclusively to members of Shoot who have logged into the website. The list will be available from the first show day, Tuesday 25th May 2011.

Visitors need to be a FREE or full member of Shoot and logged-in to see the plant list. They can then click on any plant name to research more about it and add it to their own personal plant lists to get monthly care reminders on how to plant, prune and propagate and more.

Find the Hillier Nurseries plants list in one of three ways:

1. Follow the link to Shoot from the Hillier website www.hillier.co.uk
2. Go to <http://www.shootgardening.co.uk/article/hillier>, or search the site for 'hillier' and click the articles tab
3. Scan this tag with your Smartphone.

About Shoot

Founded by Nicola Gammon, Shoot (www.shootgardening.co.uk) was a Gardening Which Best Buy in December 2009. Like many people who own a garden, allotment or even window box, Nicola had problems with plants. She created a website where members can identify a plant, and receive information on when and how to prune and propagate it.

As a member of Shoot you can build up a personal list of plants and refer online to your own month-by-month programme of what you should be doing in your garden.

Shoot has an introductory offer where members can try out a limited service for FREE. If they like the FREE version, they can also upgrade to a full membership to get all the benefits of Shoot.

Shoot half-price membership offer with Hillier

If users like the FREE version, they can also upgrade to a full membership to get all the benefits of Shoot. Together with Shoot, Hillier are offering half price on upgraded full memberships until the end of June. Simply use the discount code hillier11. By using this discount code they also accept to receive emails from Hillier.

If you have any questions about this offer or how to find the Hillier Plant List please email shoot@shootgardening.co.uk and title your email 'Hillier 2011'.
